these mountains, if the clouds in the morning be white, and have a distinct outline, even although they are very small, and very high, and though they may not be numerous, yet they always in- crease fast, and rain follows in the afternoon, but though they may be large and even low, yet if they are of a rose colour, and broken like spray, fading off into the sky with no outline, they do not increase and usually entirely disappear towards the evening. Mi disse di no con un lieve
