Eric Nolan is a man already too familiar with death. His eyes were also narrowed to give him a "sultry gaze off into the distance". Signature gathering to petitions was localised and provoked fierce contests over who could speak for a community. He had then a bowl of bread and milk, and afterwards was provided with a warm bed. Write your review. The Devil's Backbone Most of Guillermo del Toro's films could be described as "horror stories" in one way or another -- the man is a genius at creating monsters who are lonely, misunderstood, and sometimes terrifying -- but for the man's most effective chills, you must seek out this brilliant film about an isolated boys school that's forced to contend with the horrors of war.
