Christmas In Bruges: A Short Story

However, this epiphany is not about disclosing what is already present, but as Heidegger wanted, is about making Being present: door of being: open your being and wake, learn to be, form your face, develop your features, have a face I can see to see my face to see life until its death, a face of the sea, bread, rocks and a fountain, source where all our faces dissolve in the nameless face, the faceless being, the unspeakable presence of presences However, the disclosed Being is not a fixed essence but is otherness, a plurality of meanings sea, bread, rock, source. Great Job.
